

ABSTRACT

A complex having oxLDL bound covalently to β 2-GPI can be used as a standard for measuring a β 2-GPI/oxLDL complex in the living body thereby measuring the β 2-GPI/oxLDL complex in the living body more accurately and strictly, and can be utilized to provide a new measurement method, detection method, kit etc.